

The U.S. Presidency

By Ella Cane

DISCUSS

Talk through your thoughts.

- Talk with an adult about the current President of the United States. Who is it? What do you know about him? Discuss what you know about other presidents and their responsibilities.
- Pick a chapter in the book and discuss the main idea and supporting details with another person.

CREATE

Make an experience of your own.

- Make a White House out of materials around your house. Add as many details as you can. Find some friends and have them help make the U.S. Capitol building.
- What would you do if you were President? Make a list, record a speech, or draw a picture of your Cabinet!

IMAGINE

Use your imagination to explore.

- Imagine you had a chance to interview the President. Have others help you do your interview. What would you talk about with the President? What is important to you?
- With adult permission, visit the www.facthound.com website and use the code in the back of the book to find matching web sites.

EXPLORE

Like this book? Find more:

- Stand Tall, Abe Lincoln by Judith St. George
- What's It Like to be the President's Pet? by Kathleen Connors
- Where Do Presidents Come From?: And Other Presidential Stuff by Michael Townsend
- What Presidents Are Made Of by Hanoch Piven